Article 2 Admission / Confirmation

2.1 Only companies and institutions having a direct connection with the topics, participants or industries represented at the Event may be admitted as Clients. Admission shall be at the Organizer's reasonable discretion, taking into account the purpose, profile and available capacity of the Event.

2.2 Services shall generally be allocated in the order in which complete applications are received. If a requested Service is no longer available, the Organizer may offer an alternative Service. The Client shall have no entitlement to a specific allocation or to admission

2.3 An applicant has no right to demand to be admitted as Client. The admission as a Client will be confirmed in written form. The admission is valid for no other than the company or institution named in the confirmation. Once the confirmation has been received, the Contract between the Client and the Organizer is deemed concluded (conclusion of Contract).

2.4 The Organizer may revoke an existing admission if this was granted on the basis of false requirements or information given or if admission requirements subsequently cease to apply.

Article 3 Exclusivity

3.1 The Organizer may contract with other sponsors, exhibitors or service recipients. Exclusivity shall apply only where it is expressly specified in the individual booking confirmation or service description, including its scope, duration and subject matter.

Article 4 Scope of the Contract

4.1 The Services to be provided by the Organizer and the consideration payable by the Client are set out in the individual offer, service description, booking form and booking confirmation. In the event of inconsistencies, the booking confirmation shall prevail, followed by the service description, the Special Conditions of Participation, if applicable, and these General Terms and Conditions.

4.2 The Client is responsible for all items, materials, content, data and equipment supplied by it and warrants that their use in connection with the Event does not infringe any third-party rights or applicable law. The Organizer does not bear any insurance risk. The Client is advised to take out suitable insurance cover.

Article 5 Fee / terms of payment

5.1 The Client shall pay the fees specified in the individual offer or booking confirmation.

5.2 Payment is due 14 days following conclusion of the Contract and receipt of the invoice by the Client, without deduction. The relevant date is the date when the amount is credited to the Organizer's bank account. Full payment of the booked Services fee is a prerequisite for participation and must be received prior to the commencement of the event. Sponsorship services and benefits will only be provided once the full amount has been received.

5.3 All prices quoted are exclusive of the statutory value added tax.

Article 6 Cancellation and non-performance by the Client

6.1 The Client may withdraw its application without charge until admission is granted by the Organizer.

6.2 If the Client cancels after conclusion of the contract, the Organizer may claim damages as follows:

The prorated fee that is payable as damages is as follows:

- 25% of the agreed fee if cancellation is received up to 6 months prior to the Event; and
- 50% of the agreed fee if cancellation is received less than 6 months up to 1 month prior to the Event; and
- 100% of the agreed fee if cancellation is received during the one-month period directly preceding the Event.

The Client may prove that there is no damage at all or that the damage incurred is less.

6.3 A cancellation must be made in written form. The relevant date is the date of receipt by the Organizer.

6.4 The contractual fee is also due in full even if the Client does not use all the services under the Contract.

Article 7 Cancellation and non-performance by the Organizer

7.1 Should the Organizer be unable to provide an individual Service as agreed, it shall inform the Client without undue delay and may offer a reasonable equivalent substitute, taking due account of the Client's legitimate interests.

7.2 Should the Organizer be unable to hold the Event due to the occurrence of force majeure, in particular - but not limited to - natural disasters, war, civil unrest, strikes, epidemics, pandemics, governmental measures or other unforeseeable events beyond the Organizer's reasonable control, the Organizer shall inform the Client without undue delay.

7.3 Should the Event be rescheduled, the Client may withdraw from the affected booking by written notice received by the Organizer within one week after receipt of the rescheduling notice. If no timely notice is received, the booking shall apply to the rescheduled Event.

7.4 In the cases pursuant to 7.2 and 7.3 above, the Client may claim reimbursement of payments already made, minus prior advertising costs incurred.

Article 8 Liability

8.1 The Organizer shall be liable without limitation in cases of intent and gross negligence, for culpable injury to life, body or health, and in any other cases of mandatory statutory liability.

8.2 In cases of slight negligence, the Organizer shall only be liable for breaches of material contractual obligations. Material contractual obligations are obligations whose fulfilment is essential for the proper performance of the Contract and on whose compliance the Client may regularly rely. In such cases, liability shall be limited to the typical, reasonably foreseeable damage.

8.3 The Organizer does not warrant that advertising, promotion or image-related activities will achieve any specific commercial, communicative or reputational effect intended by the Client

Article 9 Data protection

Information on individual rights and general information on how we manage personal data can be found at www.vdma.eu/en/datenschutz

Article 10 Good conduct, information and confidentiality

10.1 The Parties undertake to show mutual respect, good conduct and loyalty. The Client is obliged to take into account the interests of the Organizer. In particular, the reputation and image of VDMA Services as a service company of VDMA e. V. and the image of the Event deserve to be protected.

10.2 The Parties shall inform each other as soon as reasonably practicable about any circumstances and changes that are relevant for the implementation of this Contract.

10.3 The Parties undertake to maintain confidentiality towards third parties regarding the content of the individual Contracts, including without limitation the individual items of performance. A Party may disclose to a third party details hereunder only if and when it has obtained the express, written consent of the other Party, in order to safeguard one or both Party's/Parties' interests that deserve protection, or in the case of statutory disclosure requirements. This obligation shall survive the termination of this Contract.

Article 11 Duration of the Contract

11.1 This Contract enters into force upon receipt of the booking confirmation issued by the Organizer.

11.2 This Contract ends upon cancellation or end of the Event and fulfilment of each, and any obligations owed by either Party.

Article 12 Limitation period

12.1 The limitation period is 12 months and starts at the end of the week when the Event ends. Cases of intent, gross negligence and culpable injury to life, body or health are excluded from the short limitation period. In this respect the statutory limitation periods apply.

Article 13 Text form requirement

13.1 There are no further oral agreements between the Parties.

13.2 Amendments and supplements to this Contract must be made in written form. This also applies to a waiver of this clause.

Article 14 Applicable law and jurisdiction

14.1 This Contract is governed exclusively by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, to the exclusion of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

14.2 Place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from or in connection with this Contract is Frankfurt am Main.
