Welcome to Vancouver!

PRIME MINISTER · PREMIER MINISTRE

It is with great pleasure that I welcome readers to this edition of the Tourism Vancouver Official Visitors' Guide.

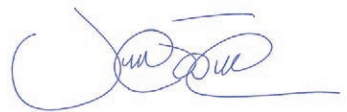

The advent of 2017 marks the beginning of a special time in Canada, as we celebrate the 150th anniversary of our nation's Confederation. This occasion gives Canadians the opportunity to look back over the span of our history and reflect on the generations before us that built our prosperous nation.

Canada is strong not in spite of our diversity, but because of it. No matter the faith we profess, where we were born, what colour our skin, what language we speak, or whom we love – we are all equal members of this country. This is the Canada that I love, and this is the Canada I hope you will join me in exploring.

Over the next year, Canadians will host celebrations of our shared identity and pride in what we have achieved together in our 150 years of history. I encourage you to seek out the unique events and offerings of Canada 150 – from our vibrant celebrations of Canada Day to a hike in one of our pristine national parks, I know that you will enjoy everything we have to offer.

Whether you are just starting to explore our country or a seasoned traveller who has seen our three coasts, I am confident that this year will be a year of endless discovery for you and your family.

If you are a visitor to Canada for the first time: Welcome. I hope you enjoy your time here.

Justin Trudeau, P.C., M.P.

ALCOHOL & SMOKING

Minors

Anyone under 19 years of age is not admitted into nightclubs serving alcohol.

Not permitted in any indoor public space

(including public transit, shopping malls, restaurants, pubs, nightclubs and casinos) or outdoors within six metres of a door or window of a public space. Please smoke in designated areas only.

It's easy to get here and around town. Here's how.

GETTING HERE

AIR

Domestic and international flights pass through Vancouver International Airport (YVR), consistently voted a top airport. Some flights also depart from downtown Vancouver. Airlines include WestJet, Air Canada, Pacific Coastal Airlines, Helijet International and Harbour Air Seaplanes.

CAR

You can drive across the U.S. border. Interstate 5 (I-5) from Seattle becomes Hwy. 99 across the Canada/U.S. border.

RAIL

Pacific Central Station located just outside downtown Vancouver offers scenic routes across Canada and the Pacific Northwest. VIA Rail, Amtrak and Rocky Mountaineer offer rail services to and from Vancouver.

FERRY

Walk on or take your vehicle on a ferry across the Strait of Georgia to visit Victoria or Nanaimo on Vancouver Island. You can also explore the Sunshine Coast, Haida Gwaii and a variety of smaller islands near Vancouver. For more information visit the BC Ferries website.

GO BEYOND VANCOUVER

GETTING AROUND

COACH

BC Ferries Connector provides service between Vancouver and Victoria. Greyhound and Pacific Coach Lines operate regular routes to Victoria, Whistler and other destinations.

BOAT

Aquabus and False Creek Ferries water taxis take passengers around the False Creek area. Stops include Yaletown, Granville Island, Science World and the Vancouver Maritime Museum.

TAXI

Taxis going from Vancouver International Airport to downtown Vancouver charge a flat fee of $31 CAD. Companies include Black Top & Checker Cabs, MacLures Cabs, Vancouver Taxi and Yellow Cab Company. Ripe Rides is a luxury sedan service you can book through its app. Sedans and limousines are also available without a reservation through YVR's official car service, Aerocar.

PUBLIC TRANSIT

TransLink's new Compass Card makes it easy to use Vancouver's modern, clean and safe public transportation system, whether you travel by bus, SkyTrain, or SeaBus.

*tap

- BUSES: Numerous bus lines operate throughout Metro Vancouver to various locations, providing easy access to our city's top neighbourhoods and attractions.
- SKYTRAIN: TransLink's automated light-rail transit system connects downtown Vancouver with nearby municipalities Burnaby, New Westminster, Surrey and Richmond. The Canada Line whisks riders from Vancouver International Airport to three downtown stations in about 25 minutes. The new Evergreen Line extension now goes to Port Moody and Coquitlam.
- SEABUS: The SeaBus passenger ferry connects downtown Vancouver with North Vancouver.

Andre Kalil

As Visitor Experience Specialist at Tourism Vancouver, Andre offers up his list of favourite ways to explore the city.

- HANGOUT SPOT: It is always a good time to spend a morning at Granville Island, surrounded by water, diverse and tasty food, local and international art and happy people enjoying their time.
- HIDDEN ATTRACTION: I absolutely love the Sewell's Marina Sea Safari, a mix of adventure and learning in the unique Howe Sound area.
- BEST VIEWS: Grouse Mountain in the evening. One of the greatest moments I had in this city was my first time snowboarding at night.
- PLACE FOR A DRINK: For coffee, Arbutus Coffee in Kitsilano. It's a charming local place with good-quality products. I also appreciate the local breweries Steamworks and Parallel 49.
- BEST-KEPT SECRET: Leaside Tunnel skateboard park. This abandoned tunnel has evolved into an amazing place for skateboarding with lots of street art.

ARCHITECTURAL ICONS

Experience a wealth of the city's landmarks, all within a short walk of the Visitor Centre.

1 Vancouver Convention Centre/ Jack Poole Plaza: Start with a stroll to the Vancouver Convention Centre. This modern, glass-fronted, waterfront building has Canada's largest living roof, home to some 400,000 native plants and 240,000 bees. Look for the Olympic Cauldron in Jack Poole Plaza outside.

ON SCREEN: The street outside the Convention Centre doubled as Mumbai during filming of Mission: Impossible – Ghost Protocol.

2 Canada Place: Make your way east to Canada Place's iconic five sails with cruise ships anchored in front. For a full-on visceral experience, head inside to FlyOver Canada, a virtual flight ride over spectacular landscapes.

GOOD TO KNOW: Join more than a million people expected to help mark Canada's 150th anniversary of Confederation. Canada Place will be at the heart of the birthday bash in Vancouver, with performances, cuisine and other cultural festivities that honour our country's diversity.

3 Vancouver Lookout: Spot the circular observation deck of Vancouver Lookout perched above Harbour Centre, which offers views of city, mountains and sea. Make a pitstop at the Top of Vancouver Revolving

Restaurant and take in the 360-degree panorama.

4 Marine Building: For a shorter walk, head west to Burrard St. to see the 1930s Art Deco-style edifice that was once the tallest building in the British Empire. Retrace your steps to the Visitor Centre.

GOOD TO KNOW: Join a summer walking tour led by the Architectural Institute of British Columbia to see a sampling of architecture styles downtown.

LOCAL INTEL

Terry Chen

The House of Cards actor and co-owner of the Alexander Gastown bar, who divides his time between Vancouver and L.A., divulges his secret spots.

5 Gastown icons: For a longer stroll, head east into Gastown, pausing for selfies (use the #veryvancouver hashtag) at the Steam Clock on Water St. and the statue of John "Gassy Jack" Deighton where Water and Carrall streets converge.

6 Skinny structure: Detour to Chinatown (walk south on Carrall St. and east along Pender) to the Sam Kee Building, the world's shallowest office building, less than 1.5 metres deep.

SHOP AND DINE

Easygoing Vancouver melds casual coastal style with local couture and its exciting culinary scene seems to follow suit. Get your fill of both as you explore.

7 Secret Location: Backtrack from the Sam Kee Building and turn west on Water St. where you'll find this concept store. Here, shop for next-big-thing clothing brands and lifestyle items like luxury candles.

GET THE SCOOP: Stanley Park Horse-Drawn Tours offers a narrated tour of the park's sites such as Deadman's Island and the Girl in a Wetsuit statue.

8 Waterfront Centre Shops: Find an array of stores and services that includes both a tailor and a shoe repair for quick fixes. Two names synonymous with Vancouver style are nearby: Leone, for ready-to-wear (pop into its Italian bistro downstairs for pasta and a cappuccino) and Eco Fashion Week, held every April at the Fairmont Waterfront hotel. Make your way back to the Visitor Centre or continue walking west.

WILD WATERFRONT WANDER

Nature lovers will be enamoured with the city's wealth of wildlife.

9 Stanley Park: Starting at the Visitor Centre, wander west (or hop on a bike) along the waterfront to Vancouver's beloved urban park, home to wild beavers and one of North America's largest colonies of Pacific great blue herons. After taking in a Theatre Under the Stars performance at Malkin Bowl, rest your legs and have a bite or beverage at Stanley's Bar and Grill in the Stanley Park Pavilion.

10 Vancouver Aquarium: Get a look at life in our coastal waters. Search for the reclusive octopus and see rescued marine mammals such as sea otters.

• BEST-KEPT SECRETS: My secret spots are all outdoor spots, preferably dog-friendly, like CRAB Park at Portside, Quarry Rock in Deep Cove and High View Lookout at Cypress Mountain.

• MY PERFECT DAY IN VANCOUVER: It starts with coffee at Milano Gastown for a pour-over or Americano. Then I'll make my way to Chambar for some waffles and a delicious brunch. If I'm close to the seawall I can't think of a better way to spend the day than biking, running or strolling.

• WHAT I MISS MOST ABOUT VANCOUVER: For me it's the food, sushi specifically. We tend to forget the abundance of restaurants, thanks to the diversity here. I love Sake Maki on Commercial Drive and noodle houses like The Ramen Butcher in Chinatown and Legendary Noodle on Denman Street. And Tavola, an Italian restaurant in the West End.

• COCKTAIL: I love The Keefer Bar in Chinatown. It's an intimate, dark venue and I always feel like I'm walking into the movie version of Blade Runner when I go in there. Tableau Bistro at the Loden Hotel is off the beaten path.

INCREDIBLE EDIBLES

Vancouver is a hungry city so do as locals do and fuel up! Indulge in Vancouver's massive food truck scene or get out on the water – ride the SeaBus from downtown across Burrard Inlet to North Vancouver's Lonsdale Quay Market, where you can graze on treats from one of the 80-plus marketplace shops.

Or head east into the belly of Chinatown for a cultural and culinary tour, dim sum included, with A Wok Around Chinatown. Nearby is Railtown where Off the Eaten Track leads an urban culinary tour.

COOK IT YOURSELF: Take a hands-on cooking class at Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts (near the Granville Island entrance) led by professional chefs.

ADRENALIN RUSH

Pack both land and sea adventures into a long day. Spot humpback, orcas or minke whales (depending on the season) with Prince of Whales Whale Watching from Coal Harbour or Wild Whales Vancouver at Granville Island.

Or go further afield with Steveston Seabreeze Adventures or Vancouver Whale Watch in Richmond. Trips travel along the Fraser River Estuary. Then move from water to land at Cypress Mountain and hit the hiking and biking trails.

PACK IT ALL IN: Take a summertime Evening Combo Tour with Vancouver Trolley Company to the Capilano Suspension Bridge and Grouse Mountain on the North Shore.

LOCAL INTEL

Bif Naked

The rock star and writer reveals a few of her fave Vancouver places.

- EAT: I will always recommend The Naam Restaurant to everyone (even if a person or group is not vegetarian or vegan, go for the house dressing on a house salad). It has been my favourite restaurant in Vancouver since 1989 and always will be!
- OUTDOORS: A walk over by Kits Beach along the seawall (and if you're ambitious, you can walk from Kits Beach, past Granville Island, past Science World to English Bay, Stanley Park and back again!). It is so incredibly beautiful it has to be physically felt: feet on earth.
- NIGHTLIFE: Rickshaw Theatre. The live venue is absolutely integral for Vancouver's music scene and has one of the most eclectic calendars every month, from showgirl cabarets to Norwegian death metal to surfer pop to jazz to pure Canadian punk.

SOUNDS OF THE CITY

It's easy to be enchanted by the city's sights but be sure to listen for its iconic urban time signals.

Every 15 minutes

Wait for the signature whistles (and steam) of Gastown's celebrated Steam Clock. This is a #veryvancouver selfie spot.

Noon

Hear the airhorns atop Canada Place sound the first four bars of "O Canada."

9 p.m.

Listen to the boom (and see the blast) of the Nine O'clock Gun on the Stanley Park seawall.

The city proves there's an art to living well

Vancouver's seaside location and gorgeous views have informed the work of internationally acclaimed homegrown artists like Douglas Coupland and Rodney Graham, inspired designers such as Omer Arbel and John Fluevog and fired the imagination of tech titans like Slack's Stewart Butterfield and Hootsuite's Ryan Holmes. It also enticed the TED Talks series organizers to invite thought leaders to meet here annually until 2020.

CURATED COLLECTIONS

Delve deeper into the city's history at the Museum of Vancouver. Its collection of artifacts and curiosities chronicle Vancouver's evolution.

At the Vancouver Art Gallery downtown, touring exhibitions complement more than 10,000 permanent pieces, including those of celebrated turn-of-the-last-century post-impressionist, Emily Carr. Nearby is the Bill Reid Gallery of Northwest Coastal Art, which has permanent and rotating collections.

ENTERTAINMENT OUTDOORS

Vancouver's great outdoors plays a role (literally!) as the backdrop for the Bard on the Beach Shakespeare Festival. Granville Island welcomes global indie theatre performers at the Vancouver Fringe Festival, music fills the air at the Vancouver International Jazz Festival and Jericho Beach celebrates its groovy past by hosting the Vancouver Folk Music Festival.

Kathleen Bartels

The director of the Vancouver Art Gallery reveals three of her favourite public artworks.

- LIGHTSHED BY LIZ MAGOR: This striking, off-kilter sculpture in Coal Harbour reflects a moment in history when the waterfront was very different. It's wonderful to discover that every seemingly familiar detail of this half-size version of a century-old freight shed was cast in aluminum.
- MONUMENT FOR EAST VANCOUVER BY KEN LUM: To me, this iconic beacon at West 6th Ave. and Clark Dr. represents the pride of East Vancouver. It's a symbol of the social, economic and political diversity in this part of the city.
- The BIRDS BY MYFANWY MACLEOD: I always enjoy seeing the two towering sparrows standing guard in the Olympic Village! Using a dramatic shift in scale, the artist has cleverly created works that are beautiful, thought-provoking and maybe even a little frightening.

Museum of Anthropology Celebrates Northwest Coast Indigenous Masterworks

The Museum of Anthropology is world-renowned for its beautiful Northwest Coast Indigenous masterworks. Highlights include Bill Reid's famous sculpture, The Raven and the First Men, towering outdoor totem poles carved by Bill Reid and Doug Cranmer, and over 6,300 other First Nations objects. Thanks to a generous donation from a private collector, as well as funding from the Doggone Foundation and the Government of Canada, this collection is now even more impressive.

Visit the Museum of Anthropology, known to locals as MOA, to admire its Gallery of Northwest Coast Masterworks, a new exhibition space that opens to the public on June 22, 2017. The opening exhibition will showcase rare and culturally significant Northwest Coast artworks, some of which date back over 1,000 years.

View, close up, works like the fragment of an ivory knife handle that depicts a man transforming into a bear, or a tobacco pipe carved into the image of a hungry bird. Ponder how these pieces may have been used, where they've travelled and what significance they held.

Our goal is to shift how museum visitors look at and relate to the works shown

Sink into an Idea Chair to hear Northwest Coast Indigenous people describe the works through their perspectives as artists, dancers and activists. Discover the meaning behind pieces and how they relate to today's issues, like the protection of Indigenous land and the importance of salmon to communities. Learn what Haida ancestor artist Charles Edenshaw's silverwork means to his grandchildren today.

"Our goal is to shift how museum visitors look at and relate to the works shown," says Jordan Wilson, MOA's Musqueam curator in residence. "Through audio, text and film, we're creating a conversation that embraces the voices of many different Northwest Coast Indigenous people," he says. "Beyond the artistry of each piece, we're looking at the relationship to the land and people that these pieces expressed throughout history and what they speak to today."

"There are many questions about what these pieces represent and who made them, so the opportunity to build knowledge around them is what makes this collection so exciting," says Karen Duffek, MOA curator of contemporary visual arts and Pacific Northwest. "It's important to showcase these works and see how they continue to teach new generations and open up new ways of thinking about Northwest Coast art and ideas."

"These masterworks have travelled all around the world and have now returned to their home on the Northwest Coast," Jordan adds. "That's what makes this donation so important and full of potential."

The Museum of Anthropology is Canada's renowned museum of world arts and cultures. Hours: 10 a.m.–5 p.m. daily, until 9 p.m. Thursday. Closed Mondays from Oct. 15–May 15. Rates: $18 adults; $16 students/seniors; $47 family; $10 Thursday after 5 p.m. For more information, call 604-827-5932 or visit moa.ubc.ca.

Discover First Nations heritage

Explore the legends and living traditions of the coastal peoples

Thousands of years ago First Nations' ancestral lands were flush with cranberries, rivers were thick with salmon and cedar totem poles bearing families' crests framed long-houses. With 203 First Nations bands living in B.C., these connections to the land run deep. Here are some iconic ways to discover First Nations culture.

SEE

The totem poles in Stanley Park are examples of visual language and an alluring entry point to First Nations culture. Go deeper: visit the Bill Reid Gallery of Northwest Coastal Art, named for one of Canada's most acclaimed artists. Here, see Reid's 8.5-metre bronze Mythic Messengers.

The Museum of Anthropology at UBC offers an immersive look at Northwest Coast First Nations the moment you enter the Great Hall. See pieces from Coast Salish, Gitksan, Nisga'a, Haida and Kwakwaka'wakw peoples, including bentwood boxes.

EXPLORE MORE: Visit Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre in Whistler to see the 40-foot-long Salish hunting canoe, named Nexws Chachu7.

EXPERIENCE

For a history lesson on the Tsleil-Waututh First Nation, paddle Indian Arm in a 25-foot canoe with Takaya Tours. Or take a Talking Trees Tour in Stanley Park with Aboriginal & Eco Tours.

Gastown

Vancouver's original 'hood has hip eateries, hot boutiques and haute home furnishings

Vancouver's oldest neighbourhood with cobblestone-street charm is named after John "Gassy Jack" Deighton, a ribald seaman who opened the first saloon here in 1867.

Pay tribute to his statue on the corner of Water and Carrall streets opposite the iconic flatiron building (both are #veryvancouver selfie spots), then explore the narrow lanes and brickwork of what's now a National Historic Site of Canada.

DRINK

Gastown also has a burgeoning brew scene, in beans. While exploring the streetscape get caffeinated at Milano Gastown. The long-standing local pioneer in coffee-making and -roasting has an espresso tasting bar, where you can try an award-winning miscela.

Secret Location

SHOP

Designer row: Versace Home Store adds an extra cool factor to Gastown's growing hub of high-end homeware – and this flagship is the luxury brand's first one worldwide. Head to Inform Interiors for modern brands like Flexform, Vitra and Bensen (designed by founder Niels Bendsten).

Fashionable fix: Lifestyle boutique and fashion mecca Secret Location offers dozens of exclusive international brands. LUMAS on Water St. is a temple to photography, representing work from international artists.

EAT

Between fashion and homeware shopping, refuel at Pourhouse Restaurant. It has sexy speakeasy style and a menu to match (hello, rabbit terrine with mustard and bread and butter pickles). Nicli Antica Pizzeria brings a slice of Italy to Vancouver as the city's first VPN-certified Neapolitan pizzeria (gluten-free dough is an option).

Ritual Sacrifice cocktail

For something stronger, go to Chill Winston for creative craft cocktails such as the Ritual Sacrifice, made with Victoria Gin, Aperol, grapefruit tea, lemon and peach bitters. Then wander outside and down the stairs to Guilt & Co. where live music goes well with its inventive cocktails, like the A Little Rain.

ON SCREEN: Scenes from the steamy Fifty Shades of Grey movies were filmed in Gastown.

WORTH THE DETOUR

Three reasons to head east on Alexander St. to the historic warehouse district of Railtown.

1 Eat: Ask for Luigi, a no-reservation spot tucked into a white-clapboard building, serves fare like wild boar ragu and fried brussels sprouts and stracciatella cheese.

2 See: Ice Box Gallery showcases local artwork in what was once cold storage for the fish industry.

3 Drink: The Settlement Building is a converted warehouse that's home to the The Belgard Kitchen, where you can taste wares from Postmark Brewing (try the citrusy West Coast Pale Ale) and Vancouver Urban Winery.

Experience towering mountains, picturesque oceans and majestic wildlife

THE SEA-TO-SKY CORRIDOR HAS IT ALL. From Vancouver to Squamish, you'll discover all the beauty, nature and history the West Coast of B.C. has to offer. Don't miss these four must-experience adventures along the way.

TOUR THE SEA-TO-SKY CORRIDOR

"On vacation, it's about the journey and the destination," says Kevin Pearce, president and co-owner of Landsea Tours. Travel in style by luxury mini coach for a guided tour of the Sea-to-Sky corridor. Stroll the seaside village of Horseshoe Bay. Breathe in the beauty of Shannon Falls. Take a gondola above ocean, mountains and forest. Descend into the depths of a mine. "This is an adventure you'll never forget." [vancouver tours.com](http://vancouver tours.com)

SET SAIL FOR A GUIDED SEA SAFARI

"Breathe in refreshing sea and mountain air as you cruise the majestic waters of Howe Sound on a 30-foot Sea Safari boat," says Megan Sewell, general manager of Sewell's Marina. Watch seals, dolphins, orcas and bald eagles in their natural habitat at Pam Rocks. Take in the towering cliffs of Anvil Island and the vast caves of Bowen Island. "All this beauty is right on Vancouver's doorstep. Come see for yourself." sewellsmarina.com

A JOURNEY LIKE NO OTHER

"The Sea to Sky Gondola is quintessentially West Coast," says Christy Allan, director of sales and marketing. Ascend high above the pristine ocean, forest and mountains. Admire the legendary Stawamus Chief. Take in the splendour of Howe Sound and the Coast Mountains. Enjoy bites, beverages and beautiful views from the Summit Lodge patio. Look down on Shannon Basin from the Sky Pilot Suspension Bridge. "It's the perfect day-trip just outside Vancouver." seatoskygondola.com

Chinatown

Traditional tea shops mingle with next-generation eateries

Chinatown is a bubbling hot pot of flavours begging to be sampled. Head east of downtown and glass towers give way to narrow alleyways that once were the cultural hubs of Chinese immigrants. Gold dragons still dance on lamp posts, but many modern businesses have set up shop, injecting new life into old. Here are great ways to get fully immersed in the mix of tradition and trend.

EAT

Taste of tradition:

New Town Bakery has been turning out steamed buns stuffed with barbecued pork since 1980, while the thousand-seat Floata Seafood Restaurant is a destination spot for authentic Hong Kong-style dim sum staples such as pork shui mai.

Sai Woo

Mamie Taylor's

New generation: Duck into Sai Woo and chow down on sumptuous bites such as Hakkha noodles with pork confit. For Southern-tinged American food, head to Mamie Taylor's and tuck into its life-affirming fried chicken and waffles.

SHOP

Taste of tradition: At the Aisin-Gioro Fine Art Gallery, sample the official Emperor's tea and find Qing dynasty and Manchurian-style artifacts to purchase. The director of the museum-style gallery is artist Cecilia Aisin-Gioro, a descendant of the Qing Dynasty royal family.

New generation: Designer Erin Templeton transforms "unloved" leather into covet-worthy handbags at her eponymous boutique. The Modern Bartender is a temple for cocktail enthusiasts with a selection of items from bar spoons to shakers.

Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden

EXPLORE

Taste of tradition: Stroll through the Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden, an authentic Ming Dynasty garden masterpiece and the largest outside of China.

New generation: Reserve a visit at Rennie Collection at Wing Sang to see one of Canada's largest contemporary art collections hidden in Chinatown's oldest building, built in 1902.

WORTH THE DETOUR

Three reasons to head east to the Strathcona 'hood.

1 Eat: Devour rustic Italian dishes like crispy cecì (right) and housemade salumi at Campagnolo.

2 Play: Quaff pints of pale ale at Red Truck Brewing.

3 Shop: Portuguese heritage underpins Union Market on the Adanac St. bike route. Sample the pastel de nata, a traditional custard tart.

Mount Pleasant

This East Vancouver village lives up to its charming name

Forget about glamour and glass; Mount Pleasant on Vancouver's East Side has unvarnished charisma. Low-rise buildings hug its buzzing artery, Main Street, with most of the shopping and dining stretching from Broadway to King Edward. Here, a blend of local boutiques, breweries, antique shops, homespun bakeries and hip cafes cozy up against one another. In-your-face murals add extra character and colour to the community.

EAT & DRINK

Mount Pleasant's restaurants are eclectic and exciting, spanning the globe from east to west.

Veg out: The Acorn has received accolades from the New York Times for its revelatory vegetarian dishes (try its pâté) and sexy decor. Cocktails are perfected too, with drinks like The Royal, made with B.C. distilled Stump Gin, St. Germaine Elderflower Liqueur and green chartreuse, among other ingredients.

Go global: Satisfy your craving for spice at East Is East Chai Lounge (try the Tibetan mantu) and finish up with liquid dessert: chocolate chai. Nearby, chow down on Peruvian-inspired tapas and pisco sours at Chicha.

Keep it casual: The Cascade Room offers a tasty take on classic Brit-meets-West-Coast, with gastropub fare (go for Sunday roast dinner), local beer and a long cocktail list, including sips like the London Calling.

Fresh sheet

Get your fill of West Coast food from surf to turf and farm to table

Fresh, local, seasonal. Those three little words pack a powerful punch in describing West Coast cuisine – a celebration of B.C.'s bounty. Chefs find fresh ways to honour ingredients like sweet Dungeness crab, plump berries, wild mushrooms and more.

LOCAL INTEL

Wayne Sych

The Joe Fortes executive chef shares three of his favourite local ingredients.

- FRESH HALIBUT AND HALIBUT CHEEKS: The season starts in the spring; to me, it really is the start of the fresh, local bounty. The slightly sweet taste of the fish makes it a popular choice for many chefs and diners.
- B.C. SPOT PRAWNS: Wild and sustainable, nothing beats fresh spot prawns. This delicacy is known around the world for its sweet, delicate flavour and firm texture. We buy our spot prawns from Organic Ocean and serve them whole, simply poached with fresh herbs, lemon and butter.
- FRESH BERRIES: Raspberries, strawberries and blueberries are always on Joe Fortes' menu during berry season, starting in early summer. We buy them from various farms in the Fraser Valley.

SURF

At Joe Fortes Seafood & Chop House, a city institution since 1985, executive chef Wayne Sych crafts seafood classics (think oysters Rockefeller) and modern fare like his miso-marinated sablefish with sesame quinoa, mushrooms, edamame, kale and sweet soy.

On the seawall at the foot of Howe St., Ancora Waterfront Dining & Patio is where you'll find executive chef Ricardo Valverde imparting Japanese and Peruvian influences into his signature seafood tower, the Ancora Glacier. Find Dungeness crab causa mingling with high-grade sashimi (prepared by star sushi chef Yoshihiro Tabo), plus local oysters.

SUSTAINABLE SEAFOOD: Look for the Ocean Wise label, an initiative launched by the Vancouver Aquarium in support of sustainable fishing practices and embraced by chefs like Blue Water Cafe's Frank Pabst.

FEAST

Three more ways to get your food fix.

1 Meet the farmers: Vancouver's seasonal farmers markets are scattered across the city, including winter markets at Hastings Park (at the PNE) and Nat Bailey Stadium. Go to Eat Local online (eatlocal.org) to find out what's cropping up.

2 Take a food tour: Eat your way through or around Granville Island Public Market with Vancouver Foodie Tours. The market is brimming with fresh fish, handmade pasta, organic produce and decadent doughnuts.

TURF

Cacao is a newcomer to the city, with Chef Jefferson Alvarez expertly fusing Latin American flavours and cookery techniques with West Coast ingredients (think bison and elk), culminating in hearty dishes such as bison asado negro.

Eric Pateman, chef, president and founder of Edible Canada, helped put deeply local food on the culinary map with creations that feature ingredients like Pacific giant octopus, organic kale and local and sustainable mussels.

Fable

FARM

Burdock & Co. in Mount Pleasant is helmed by chef Andrea Carlson, who is dedicated to using farm-fresh and foraged ingredients. Try her kohlrabi and cabbage gomae with pumpkin seeds and maple. Thirsty? Go for a glass of naturalist wine and taste the natural terroir.

Chef Trevor Bird opened Fable (a mashup of the words "farm and "table") to help define Canadian cuisine with unfussy fare, such as his house-made soups and vegetarian tagliatelle, packed with seasonal vegetables.

GET TO THE ROOT OF IT: Explore more West Coast cuisine online. Go to westcoastfood.ca.

LOCAL INTEL

John Bishop

The chef and owner of Bishop's dishes on the local ingredients he likes to work with.

- FRESHLY STEAMED DUNGENESS CRAB: Served whole with lemons and a homemade mayonnaise as a dipping sauce.
- QUADRA ISLAND KUSSHI OYSTERS: Freshly shucked and served on shaved ice with a shallot and apple cider mignonette.
- FILET OF WILD SPRING SALMON: Lightly grilled and served with steamed baby new potatoes.
- SALT SPRING ISLAND MUSSELS: A large bowl, steamed, with warmed baguette.

3 Eat out: Fill your belly from 300 restaurants serving up multi-course meals during Dine Out™ Vancouver Festival, Canada's largest food and drink event, with activities like brunch crawls and cocktail masterclasses over 17 days starting in January.

L'Abattoir

On the town

Listen to live music, wriggle your way out of an escape room or sip craft beer and cocktails like a local during a night out in Vancouver

Vancouver's many dens give you great reasons to drink up, especially with its top-notch bartenders shaking and stirring up artfully crafted cocktails. Here are five places to keep the party going from morning to night.

COCKTAIL HOURS

1 RISE AND SHINE

Lineups at Café Medina aren't just for the Belgian waffles, but for brunch-time wake-up cups like the Samanyolu, a hybrid of gin, fresh strawberries and house breakfast tea syrup.

2 LIQUID LUNCH

Feeling peckish? Chambar's The Blue Fig pairs a martini of house-made-fig-infused gin with a side of blue cheese.

3 AFTERNOON DELIGHT

The Fairmont Pacific Rim's Lobby Lounge is where ladies who lunch meet high flyers of finance. If budget allows, a $490 Royal Sazerac celebrates the marriage of Louis XIII Cognac, salted absinthe, Peychaud's Bitters and lemon oil.

4 HIGH FIVE (O'CLOCK)

Sabrina Dhaliwal holds court at Uva Wine & Cocktail Bar, stirring up whistle-wetters like Peater Rabbit, a mix of Famous Grouse blended scotch, Laphroaig Quarter Cask, red vermouth, boreal cordial and Cascade Celery Bitters from local brand Bittered Sling.

5 NIGHTCAP

True to its name, Juniper boasts a gin-forward bar with a rotating list of local distilleries and aromatics. Try the Catalan, a G&T made with B.C. gin, Fever-Tree Mediterranean tonic water, grapefruit and a giant sprig of fresh thyme.

Catalan

Main Street Brewing Co.

ROOMS WITH BREWS

Vancouver's craft breweries are clustered around the city, with Main St. and its surrounding avenues as one of the go-to areas. The 19th-century Brewery Creek 'hood that disappeared in the 1920s has a new generation of craft beer tasting rooms.

The Steel Toad Brewing Company off Main St. in Olympic

HOP ON BOARD: Vancouver Brewery Tours offers a rotating schedule of three-hour brewery tours across Metro Vancouver.

MUSIC AND MYSTERY

Live music venues draw diverse crowds to their compact environs while the new escape room craze tests players' puzzle-solving prowess.

Downtown: Opened in 1929, the Commodore Ballroom is still the place to take in concerts by locals like Matthew Good and international artists such as Sting. The Roxy has also long been at the heart of Vancouver's entertainment district, with its house band covering classic songs and new hits. For adventurous entertainment outside, collect clues on downtown streets as you solve a mystery with Vancouver Mysteries.

Village serves pints of its Oatmeal Stout in a restored industrial building. Farther west is Big Rock Urban Brewery & Eatery, which has signature beers such as its Citradelic Single Hop IPA. Deeper into Mount Pleasant is the hipster-approved Main Street Brewing Co., which pours a proper British Westminster Brown.

Gastown: At Guilt & Co., a cozy basement bar, get up close to musical acts at pay-what-you-can prices. Nearby, five themed escape rooms challenge players at SmartyPantz, including Doomed Submarine 2.0.

Kitsilano: Jazz fans can sip champagne or scotch while listening to live acts like Bruno Hubert Trio perform at the new Blue Martini Jazz Cafe on Yew St.

SUPER SIPPERS

With 277 wineries (and counting) B.C.'s wine scene has earned international awards. Here are three ways to get grapes in your glass.

1 ATTEND A FESTIVAL

Compare B.C. wines to international offerings at the Vancouver International Wine Festival (it's on in February/March), one of the oldest and biggest wine events worldwide.

2 STOCK THE CELLAR

Shops such as Village Wines and Swirl Wine Store exclusively sell B.C. wines and offer free in-store tastings, often from new or little-known wineries.

3 TAKE A TOUR

Get the grapes-to-glass experience at Lulu Island Winery in Richmond, starting in the vineyard and finishing up with ice wine tastings. Vine & Hops Wine and Craft Beer Tours takes budding oenophiles behind the scenes at Fraser Valley wineries.

Robyn Gray

The head bartender at Prohibition spills secrets on his favourite cocktails and ingredients.

- FAVOURITE LOCAL SPIRIT: Sheringham Seaside Gin. This distillery does it right: clean, crisp and fresh. With locally harvested kelp, it brings a true flavour of local terroir.
- SECRET INGREDIENT: Ice. As chefs cook with fire, bartenders create with ice. We have many styles, shapes and sizes of ice at Prohibition. When creating a seemingly perfect cocktail, the choice of ice used is always the secret!
- FAVE COCKTAIL TO MAKE: Ramos Gin Fizz. I have a secret when it comes to making the cocktail perfect: it's the ice. When you make it just right, the presentation and flavour are both stunning.
- FAVE COCKTAIL TO DRINK: Pegu Club (Sheringham Seaside Gin, Cointreau, lime juice and a dash of Angostura aromatic bitters). It's liquid refreshment.
- FAVOURITE BAR IN VANCOUVER: Keefer Bar. It's the best! It comes down to the choice of music, a talented Italian barman making my Negroni, hand-carved ice cubes and a spirits collection that boggles the mind, with rarities in every category. Everything is done right.

RAINBOW CONNECTION

With its rainbow crosswalk, bright-pink bus shelters and the new Jim Deva Plaza at Davie and Bute streets, the West End's Davie Street Village is the playground of the LGBTQTS (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning and two spirit) community. Here's where the party is on any given night.

Monday: Queer Prov – Sketch comedy at XYYVR

Tuesday: Shame Spiral – Gender-bending fabulousness with Peach Cobblah at 1181

Wednesday: Bingo for Life – Balls and boys raising money for people with HIV/AIDS at Celebrities Night Club

Thursday: Catch a game at Score on Davie

Friday: Wet & Wild – Go-go boys hit the shower at Pumpjack Pub

Saturday: Absolut-ly Dragulose show hosted by Carlotta Gurl at The Junction

Sunday: Bear and Beer afternoon meet-up at Pumpjack Pub

SUMMER IN THE GAYBOURHOOD: Vancouver Queer Film Festival screens hundreds of international films and the Vancouver Pride Parade and Festival – Western Canada's largest – takes to the streets.

LOCAL INTEL

Vikram Vij

Chef, restaurateur and TV personality Vikram Vij shares his secrets of eating local while on the go.

- FRESH FARE: Farmers markets are an amazing go-to for picking up something fresh, local and delicious and just eating it while you walk along, exploring more of the produce our province has to offer.
- ETHNIC EATS: One of my favourite things is walking through the Punjabi district on Main around 49th. It feels like home: less livestock, but the same colour, bustle and some incredible treats you can pick up at stores and food outlets. When I buy there, the food rarely makes it home.

ON WHEELS

Here are five food trucks to try.

Mexican: Tacofino's food truck, emblazoned with the Virgin de Guadalupe, is the go-to for tasty tacos. Try: Classic Baja-style fish taco with crispy ling cod, cabbage, salsa fresca and chipotle mayo.

Indian: Take a tour of Indian cuisine at Vij's Railway Express, another offering from chef Vikram Vij of Vij's and Rangoli fame. (It won the People's Choice Award for enRoute magazine's Best New Restaurant in Canada.) Try: Butter chicken schnitzel.

Asian: The pan-Asian flavours of Le Tigre became such a hit, its chef opened a permanent restaurant, Torafuku. Try: Angry Kitty Cat Squares of crispy fried rice, kimchi, basil, spicy mayo and nori.

Locavore: Sample über West Coast, plant-based drinks at The Juice Truck, Vancouver's first cold-pressed juice company. Try: Almost Chocolate smoothie, made with banana, medjool dates and almond milk.

Japanese: The Anthony Bourdain-approved Japadog is one of Vancouver's original gourmet street-food carts. Try: Negimiso dog sprinkled with seaweed and slathered with wasabi-mayo.

BRICKS AND MORTAR

These neighbourhood pick-up pitstops offer anything but "fast food."

West End: On the way to the beach at English Bay, stop at the walk-up window of Beach Bay Café for takeaway fish 'n' chips, available year-round.

Mount Pleasant: Get an oyster po'boy sandwich to go at

The Fish Counter. Walk it off en route back downtown.

Chinatown: Fetch Kiosk, in the stately Old Electric Building, has a service window from which to order an Irish BLT or apple pulled pork.

Gastown: Tacofino's Burrito Bar is a strictly takeout spot where you can order the likes of a chorizo burrito (or stay in and have a Michelada at the Tacofino Taco Bar).

Granville Island: Edible Canada's takeout window includes such must-try delicacies as duck fat frites and poutine.

INDULGE: Sample eats from Vancouver's food trucks gathered at the Vancouver Art Gallery during Street Food City, part of the annual Dine Out™ Vancouver Festival from January 19 to February 4.

Spectacular by Nature™

Discover the city's natural beauty from sea to sky and in between

Vancouver's setting on the West Coast, surrounded by water and mountains, guarantees dramatic scenery. Here's how to discover the city, from skiing to stand-up paddleboarding.

ATOP A MOUNTAIN

Easy: Take in Vancouver's mix of sea, city and peaks from a seaplane on Harbour Air Seaplanes' Panorama tour. Or set up a custom chopper tour of the North Shore mountains with Helijet International.

Pre- or post-flight: Watch planes from the Vancouver Convention Centre while sipping a local East Side Bitter at Mahony & Sons Public House.

AT SEA LEVEL

Easy: The seawall is the city's 22-km walking, jogging, cycling and rollerblading path. Rent an electric bike at EzeeRiders Bike Rentals or one of the blue Mobi By Shaw Go bikes (they're part of the city's new public bike-share system) and follow the waterfront from the Vancouver Convention Centre around Stanley Park, past Science World and Granville Island to Kitsilano Beach.

Pitstop: Right on the waterfront at Granville Island, stop at Dockside Restaurant, which serves up seafood staples like crab and shrimp cakes.

Harder: English Bay is the seaside hub of Vancouver's West End and just one in a string of downtown-area beaches. Take the Sunset SUP (that's stand-up paddleboarding) with Ecomarine Paddlesport Centres for a seal's view of the city's beaches.

Nightcap: Sip seasonal craft beers, like the Stanley Park WinterGlow, from a water-view seat at the Bayside Lounge, an old-school-meets-hipster cocktail bar in the Best Western Plus Sands Hotel.

Harder: For the best view of Vancouver, do the Grouse Grind. A rigorous rite of passage for fit locals (the record is 23:48), this straight-up 2.9-km hike climbs 853 metres of altitude alongside the Grouse Mountain Super Skyride (the easy route).

Refuel: Early start atop Grouse Mountain Resort in summer? Have breakfast with the rescued grizzlies, Grinder and Coola.

BE PREPARED: Before you head out on a hike, make sure you have the safety essentials with you, including water, extra clothes, a flashlight and a first aid kit.

Eoin Finn

The yogi, surfer and blissologist has been practising yoga since 1989. Marrying his love for athletics with yoga, Finn has also trained more than 100 Olympians and pro athletes. Here are Finn's fave places to find solitude in nature:

- THE TOP OF GROUSE MOUNTAIN: Sure, lots of people check their time at the top after the long walk up, but I like to lose track of time and meditate alone up there taking in the beauty of the ocean, mountains, forests and our great city.
- MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY AT UBC: These cliffs are magical. To do yoga around such huge totem poles and nature really reconnects us to our source.
- KITS BEACH LAWN: Finding my stillness amidst the joy of volleyball players, swimmers and sunbathers, along with a view of the sun setting over Vancouver Island, is sheer bliss.
- LIGHTHOUSE PARK, WEST VANCOUVER: It feels like worlds away from the city. I love doing yoga watching our beautiful city skyline and Mount Baker while curious seals swim by and check out my poses.

INTO THE WOODS

Easy: Stanley Park, Vancouver's 405-hectare backyard since 1888, is the third-largest urban park in North America. This rainforest oasis includes Lost Lagoon, Beaver Lake, an 18-hole pitch-and-putt golf course and more than 27 km of forest trails. Or take a nature tour with Rockwood Adventures to see virgin rainforest in Lighthouse Park.

WALK ON WATER: The Capilano Suspension Bridge lets you tread 137 metres across and 70 metres above what the Squamish Nation call Kia'palano, or "beautiful river." Explore more of the canyon on the Cliffwalk.

Harder: The North Shore is known worldwide as a mecca for year-round mountain biking, with a vast network of trails on Cypress Mountain (5th Horseman, Trunk Monkey, Shore Play) and Fromme Mountain (Pipeline, Espresso, 7th Secret) – and killer views while blazing downhill.

Go beyond: For bike clinics and lift access to spectacular terrain at one of the world's best mountain bike parks, go to Whistler Blackcomb Mountain. For flatter terrain, take a guided cycle tour with Into the Wild and hit the Trans Canada Trail on two wheels.

SNOW SCENE: In winter, ski, snowboard or snowshoe those summer bike trails at Cypress Mountain. From 1,440 metres, at the top of Mt. Strachan, you'll have the diorama-like city and Strait of Georgia spread before you.

On the waterfront

Head to the beach or bay to explore the city by the sea

Vancouver is virtually an island oasis surrounded by inlets, bays and rivers that all flow into the Pacific Ocean. Even downtown with its glittering glass towers is framed by sandy beaches, urban forests and a ring of walking and cycling paths that offer easy access to the water. Stroll the seawall, perch on a bridge or put your toes in the sand and watch the scene of stand-up paddlers, sailors and kayakers drift by. Join them and explore Vancouver by water.

Clockwise from top: Science World with Aquabus ferry, Sea Vancouver, Ecomarine Paddlesports

Choose your water-bound adventure

KEEP YOUR FEET DRY

Hunt for treasure: Set sail from Granville Island with Pirate Adventures and join the captain and crew of salty characters in search of treasure in False Creek. Kids and adults get the full pirate treatment, with face-painting and pirate attire. Time for a selfie? Tag it: #veryvancouver

Ride a ferry:

You can explore museums, sporting venues and neighbourhood bars and boutiques, all by water. A fleet of little ferries buzzes back and forth along False Creek, stopping at neighbourhoods and attractions such as Science World British Columbia, Vancouver Maritime Museum and Granville Island. Take a mini-tour on board Aquabus Ferries (its Cyquabuses take bikes) or get a day pass on False Creek Ferries.

MAKE A SPLASH

Take a dip: In summer, stretches of sandy beaches are buzzing with activity, but the water can be a bit brisk for some swimmers. Two heated outdoor pools chase the chill away: the 137-metre saltwater Kitsilano Pool (ideal for laps or lounging on deck) and the 80-metre Second Beach Pool in Stanley Park, which has a slide.

GOOD TO KNOW: Forgot your swimsuit? Go au naturel at clothing-optional Wreck Beach.

Pacific Angler (above) offers fly-fishing courses for beginners and beyond tourismvancouver.com

Go underwater: Explore clear waters teeming with plumose anemones, octopuses and sponges on a diving or snorkelling adventure with Sea Dragon Charters. Board the TopLine at Horseshoe Bay and head to B.C.'s newest artificial reef, the HMCS Annapolis, just 20 minutes away in Halkett Bay.

TAKE OFF

Get hooked: Practice your saltwater angling with Bites-on Salmon Charters, which offers guided salmon fishing excursions from downtown.

Or go east with Great River Fishing Adventures or STS Guiding Services to catch (and release) a Fraser River sturgeon or fly fish for trout. Avid angler? Take a fly-tying course with Pacific Angler.

Go wild: Visit a colony of harbour seals sunning themselves on Pam Rocks in Howe Sound; it's just one of the experiences on Sewell's Marina sea safari. Adventures start at Horseshoe Bay where guests don survival suits and board an inflatable boat to "hunt" for wildlife.

For an urban expedition, take off with Sea Vancouver on a Zodiac that zips along Vancouver's inner harbour and beyond reaching speeds of 55 km/hour.

EAGLE ALERT: Look for the bald eagle nest high up in a tree by the Burrard Civic Marina in Vanier Park.

SPEND A DAY ON THE WATER

MORNING

Salute the sun with a 90-minute stand-up paddling yoga class.

Vancouver Water Adventures offers morning sessions on the calm waters off Kitsilano Beach. It's a #veryvancouver way to start the day.

FUEL UP: Head to Beaucoup Bakery for coffee and a croissant.

AFTERNOON

Peddle the peaceful waters of False Creek on BC Water Bikes launching from Vanier Park. Or helm your own dinghy and sail to behemoth ships anchored in English Bay.

RECHARGE: Slurp down some briny bivalves at Chewies Steam & Oyster Bar.

SUNSET

Kayak through water gleaming with phosphorescence from the light of the full moon. Ecomarine Paddlesports Centres leads tours from both English Bay and Jericho Beach and Deep Cove Kayak takes paddlers up Indian Arm.

WIND DOWN: Sip a local craft beer at The Three Brits Public House at the foot of Davie and Denman streets.

Cheer for the home team

Energy and passion fuel Vancouver's thriving sports scene

With multiple pro teams to cheer on, exciting legacies from the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games to explore, and new tournaments ahead, thrills await in this green, fitness-first city. From ice to grass, here are five sports to watch.

HOCKEY

1 Head to Rogers Arena to catch the National Hockey League's Vancouver Canucks in action. Marvel at the skills of superstar brothers Daniel and Henrik Sedin at the iconic 18,910-capacity arena by False Creek.

The downtown stadium hosted Canada's 2010 Olympic gold medal hockey triumph (defeating the USA 3–2) and is home to the Vancouver Canucks.

GOOD TO KNOW: In 1915, the Vancouver Millionaires defeated the Ottawa Senators to win this hockey-mad city's first (and so far only) Stanley Cup championship.

2 Want a value-priced, family-friendly night of hockey? Check out the Vancouver Giants junior hockey stars. The 2007 Memorial Cup champions compete at the Langley Events Centre.

INTERMISSION: At the ritzy new Sportsbar and the concession stands, savour gourmet hand-carved sandwiches, poutine and cocktails. Shop for custom jerseys and other NHL souvenirs at the two-level Canucks Store.

LOCAL INTEL

Bo Horvat

One of hockey's most exciting players, Horvat made his NHL All-Star Game debut in 2017. This young Canucks centre from London, Ontario, shares his Vancouver faves.

- NEIGHBOURHOOD: Yaletown. You can walk the seawall and it's a younger atmosphere, with great restaurants.
- SEAFOOD: Blue Water Cafe. I like their salmon and crab dishes.
- DOG WALKING: My French bulldog Gus likes to run off-leash at Pacific Spirit Regional Park at UBC.

- TOURIST ATTRACTIONS: Grouse Mountain for the view, grizzly bear sanctuary and bird shows. I've taken family to the Capilano Suspension Bridge for the Christmas lights.

TOURNAMENTS ON TAP

When it comes to hosting big sports events, Vancouver is stepping up in the new millennium. Here are some highlights.

2010	2011	2014	2015
Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games	Grey Cup	Grey Cup	FIFA Women's World Cup

Soccer

3 Get your kicks with the Vancouver Whitecaps at BC Place, which hosted the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, including the final. Join more than 20,000 spectators beneath the stadium's spectacular retractable roof to root for the longest-running pro soccer club in North American history.

Baseball

4 Right beside Queen Elizabeth Park, Nat Bailey Stadium is one of North America's prettiest places to watch baseball. Cheer for every home run with the Vancouver Canadians, affiliated with the Toronto Blue Jays.

INTERMISSION: Don't miss the fourth-inning race between mascots dressed up as sushi. Fuel up with two-foot-long hot dogs and craft beer.

Football

5 BC Place stadium hosted the 2010 Olympic Winter Games opening and closing ceremonies and the champion-calibre vibe persists here with the Canadian Football League's BC Lions. The six-time Grey Cup champions have fielded greats like kicker Lui Passaglia, pro football's all-time highest scorer, and college and NFL quarterback Doug Flutie. Even Apollo Creed himself, Carl Weathers, from the Rocky movies, once played for the BC Lions.

INTERMISSION: Tuck into fish and chips or Asian steamed buns, enjoy the BC Lions cheerleaders and sing along with the fight song, "Roar, You Lions, Roar."

MORE SPORTS ATTRACTIONS

Inside BC Place stadium, the BC Sports Hall of Fame and Museum (below) pays tribute to athletic icons like Greg Moore, Terry Fox, Rick Hansen and more.

Get hands-on with the Olympic spirit with Whistler Sport Legacies. Explore 130 km of Nordic skiing and snowshoeing trails at Whistler Olympic Park in the pristine Callaghan Valley. Take biathlon lessons or take the kids tobogganing. At the Whistler Sliding Centre, daredevil visitors can whiz down the 1,450-metre-long ice track on a bobsleigh or skeleton ride.

At the Richmond Olympic Oval, the former 2010 speed-skating venue, dive into the interactive Richmond Olympic Experience (ROX). Realistic sport simulators let you feel the thrills of ski jumping, race car driving and more.

Shoppers' paradise

Stroll the streets or explore one of the many malls for a bargain or treasure to take home

Luxury labels, fast-fashion favourites, one-of-a-kind boutiques—the city packs it all in to satisfy every shopping whim. Here's our guide for how to take it all in.

Lululemon Athletica's flagship store

Explore these five hot shopping strolls.

DOWNTOWN

1 Robson Street: High-street style

Right outside Nordstrom's main entrance is Vancouver's most bustling shopping area, Robson Street. It's flagship central, with the largest Victoria's Secret and Sephora locations in Canada. Lululemon Athletica's flagship includes The Joinery, the brand's unique service-in-shop for customizing men's shorts.

2 Burrard and Alberni: Luxury row

Within the historic Fairmont Hotel Vancouver on Burrard are both Omega and Dior's first standalone boutiques in Canada. Where Alberni and Thurlow intersect, Brunello Cucinelli, Prada, Versace and Moncler are the newest names on the block. Hermès scarves, jewels from Tiffany & Co., Burberry trench coats – procure a veritable lexicon of iconic pieces.

ONE-STOP SHOPPING

Visit these shopping centres and outlet malls from downtown to YVR and beyond.

Pacific Centre

More than 100 shops are located in downtown's Pacific Centre, bookended by high-end department stores Holt Renfrew and Nordstrom. Make a stop at menswear retailer Harry Rosen for a well-fitted suit.

Aberdeen Centre

A visit to Aberdeen Centre is akin to travelling to Asia and beyond, with 150 shops offering food, furniture and fashion, including Japan's Daiso dollar store, North America's first and largest.

McArthurGlen Vancouver

Well-known in Europe, McArthurGlen opened its only Canadian outlet here in 2015. Score designer brands such as Armani and Coach for up to 70 per cent off.

Tsawwassen Mills

The massive Tsawwassen Mills outlet with 200-plus stores, including Canada's first Saks OFF 5TH (a second opens at Park Royal Shopping Centre this summer), opened last October. It offers a free shopping shuttle to and from Tsawwassen Ferry Terminal, coinciding with ferry sailing times.

Cara Jourdan

The insider behind the blog afashionloveaffair.com reveals her must-shop spots in Vancouver.

- NORDSTROM: Nordstrom has absolutely everything you can imagine, from high-end (Céline, Isabel Marant) to accessible and more wearable brands like Free People, For Love and Lemons and Madewell. They also support local designers like Melanie Auld.
- HILLS DRY GOODS: It carries such a great selection of designers (from high-end Ulla Johnson to everyday wear like Levi's) and also houses Blue Ruby jewellery.
- BLUBIRD: I love their collections, from J Brand denim to Missoni. They also carry eyewear, jewellery, handbags and a selection of beauty products; it's a great spot to find gifts as well.

WEST SIDE

3 West 4th/Kitsilano: Sporty chic

Health and fitness pervades Vancouver, but the vibe is particularly strong across the Burrard Bridge in Kitsilano. Here, a concentration of outdoor stores sets the mood with shops catering to a range of activities, including two of its most popular: yoga and mountain sports.

4 South Granville: Artful living

With its mix of art galleries, décor stores, fashion boutiques and beauty services, South Granville feels like the pages of a lifestyle magazine come alive. Both big brands and boutiques co-exist, ranging from locally owned Adore Fashions to American import Williams-Sonoma.

EAST SIDE

5 Main Street/Mount Pleasant: Home-grown hip

Old's cool in Mount Pleasant. Anchored by Main St., the area brims with antique shops and vintage stores, making it a paradise for the eco-conscious bargain hunter. It's also a haven for local artists and designers showcasing goods made close to home.

 Need a nibble? Find a seat in the salon at luxury purveyor TWG Tea Vancouver or indulge in artisanal confections at Thierry.

MADE IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver's early entrepreneurs (saloon-starters and Greenpeace founders) weren't exactly style-setters. Since then, design titans have emerged. Here's a brief history of our city's iconic brands.

1970 JOHN FLUEVOG SHOES

John Fluevog and then-partner Peter Fox establish Vancouver's flagship of cool kicks.

1971 MEC

A group of West Coast mountaineers blaze trails with their outdoor gear and clothing cooperative.

1980 ARC'TERYX

Local climbers Dave Lane and Jeremy Guard launch the high-performance outdoor company.

1981 BENSEN

Niels Bendtsen establishes the design and manufacturing group.

1984 ARITZIA

Brian Hill starts setting trends with his women's contemporary fashion boutique.

1995 PYRRAH

Wade and Danielle Papin launch their talisman-themed jewellery line.

1998 LULULEMON ATHLETICA

Future billionaire Chip Wilson starts the yoga-wear company.

2005 BOCCI

Omer Arbel establishes

the design and manufacturing company famed for its blown-glass lighting.

2009 NATIVE SHOES

Its lightweight, perforated and vegan-friendly Jefferson slip-ons are instantly iconic.

2009 HERSCHEL SUPPLY CO.

Brothers Jamie and Lyndon Cormack make backpacks cool again.

2014 KIT AND ACE

JJ and Shannon Wilson team up to launch the luxury casual apparel company.

8 Things You Need to Know About McArthurGlen Designer Outlet

From luxury brands to big deals to delicious bites, the city's first designer outlet centre has everything you need for a one-of-a-kind shopping experience

SHOPPING IS ALWAYS on the top of a traveller's to-do list. So while experiencing the beauty of our city, don't forget to block off a day and treat yourself to some of the world's most sought-after luxury labels — below retail price — at McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Vancouver Airport. Here are eight reasons why McArthurGlen was voted the Best Outlet Centre at the MAPIC Awards, and is the ideal place for an exciting day shopping.

GREAT LOCATION:

Just three minutes from the Vancouver International Airport (YVR) and only 20 minutes from downtown Vancouver, McArthurGlen is ideally located.

EUROPEAN CHARM:

This lovely European-inspired open-air, village-style centre features picturesque piazzas, public art installations, tree-lined streets and pedestrian-friendly boulevards.

HIGH FASHION LABELS:

With everything from all-out luxury from some of the world's most iconic apparel labels, such as Armani, Coach, Michael Kors, Ted Baker and Polo Ralph Lauren, to urban-casual fashion from Banana Republic, Gap, Tommy Hilfiger and UGG, there's always something to please the most discerning shopaholic.

ACTIVEWEAR:

To enjoy the best of wild B.C., you'll need appropriate activewear. Come explore a wide selection, including Columbia Sportswear, Icebreaker, Lolë, Nike and Under Armour.

PASSPORT TO SAVINGS:

The only thing better than finding the perfect designer outfit is getting it for up to 70 per cent off. Enjoy impressive savings on sought-after designer brands. Present this article at Guest Services to receive your Fashion Passport for an extra 10 per cent off at selected stores on the day of your visit.

DELICIOUS EATS:

Hungry? Head to one of McArthurGlen's delicious restaurants like Bibò Pizzeria, Ryu Japanese Kitchen, Japadog, Qoola, Café Crepe or Neptune Wonton Noodle Restaurant. If you crave an artisan drink or a small bite, head over to Caffè Artigiano, situated in the beautiful main piazza.

CONVENIENCE:

Flight delayed or have a long layover? From YVR, you can travel free on the Canada Line to the outlet centre. If you're spending the day at the centre, there's free parking for 2,000 vehicles and even some electric charging stations.

COMPLIMENTARY SERVICES:

McArthurGlen offers lockers for carry on bags and flight display screens throughout the centre, so you can easily keep track of your departure. There's also Wi-Fi and cell phone chargers, and a fun-filled children's play area, all free of charge.

McArthurGlen is open daily, Monday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. For more information, call 604-231-5525 or visit www.mcarthurglenvancouver.com.

Buy local

Vancouver's makers and artisans offer unique goods

Boasting the highest concentration of artists in Canada, Vancouver's maker culture rocks for two major reasons: locals love supporting fresh ideas and artisans are devoted to perfecting their craft. Discover some of the top talents around town and find a sweet souvenir to take home.

Jon Shaw's Icey Chomp

Meander three markets, each with a distinctive atmosphere.

1 Gourmet goods: For well-finished fineries, demos and tastings, head to Circle Craft Market. Every November curated selections in pottery, glassblowing, leatherwork and more fill the Vancouver Convention Centre with tempting gifts. Look for collaged quilts by Lorna Moffat, birch bark-styled tableware by Sophia Kim and lunar pendants by metalsmith Jessie Phoenix.

Sophia Kim's bark-styled tableware

2 A pint while you ponder: In an upbeat atmosphere of music, beer and food trucks, Make It! The Handmade Revolution, hosted at the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE), showcases collections from 250 local crafters. During the annual event in April, look for funky mixed-media prayer flags by Judy Mojo, pop-bright bowls by FeltCandy and screen printed tees by Ole Originals.

3 Footprints in the sawdust: Meet the makers face-to-face by joining 20,000 other curious collectors on the Eastside Culture Crawl in November when more than 400 artists open their studios. Heather Braun Dahl, for instance, showcases her Dahlhaus colour-blocked ceramics, while Jon Shaw's watercolour paintings of alleys in uplifting hues can be seen in The Mergatroid Building, a space shared by dozens of artisans.

ARTFUL ENCLAVES

Find works infused with the neighbourhood's local character.

Art on the island: Granville

Island is a mecca for working artisans, many of which showcase and sell their work from their open studios scattered throughout the island's streets and lanes. Jewellers, potters, fashion designers and glass blowers all ply their crafts here. One must-see artisanal hub is Craft Council of BC's Crafthouse Gallery.

Chic among the cobblestones:

For high-chic originals, Gastown stocks your must-haves at boutiques such as Charlie & Lee, Nouvelle Nouvelle and One of a Few. Look for Lindsey Hampton's pastel-rimmed and speckled ceramics, plus Quench Designs' gold-cast salal-leaf and cedar-frond jewellery.

Revolution's on the wall:

Want art that reveals the beauty in truth? Stride strong-willed Commercial Drive to find June Hunter's emblematic images of dark crows. Closer to Trout Lake, you'll find Second Nature Home Boutique, stocking organic soaps, linens and black walnut amulets by Stark Nature.

Put some irony on it:

From East Broadway to 33rd Avenue, Main Street offers an all-hits lineup of indie boutiques. Pick up reclaimed-wood record crates by Hobo Woodworks or InnerFire yoga pants and Veespoke's scarves at shops like Nineteen Ten, Giving Gifts & Company Store and Bird on a Wire.

> B.C. Buckles Up

The use of safety belts, child safety seats, bicycle helmets and motorcycle helmets is mandatory in British Columbia.

> Bank Machines/Credit Cards

Most bank machines in Metro Vancouver offer service on the Plus, Cirrus and Interac networks. They also generally accept credit card withdrawals. If you use your credit card to get cash from an ATM, the currency exchange is automatically done for you at the rate your credit card company offers. Vancouver welcomes all major credit cards.

> Tipping

Tips or service charges are not often added to a restaurant bill in Canada. Tipping your server at a bar, restaurant, nightclub or pub is standard practice. A tip of 15 to 20 per cent of the pre-tax amount is suggested. Porters at airports, railway stations and hotels are generally given $1 to $2 per bag.

> Taxes

A federal goods and services tax (GST) of five per cent applies to most purchased goods and services. In addition, a provincial sales tax (PST) of seven per cent is applicable to most retail purchases except liquor, which is taxed at 10 per cent.

Vancouver 150

How our city and country grew

Vancouver's youthful vibe is celebrated year round with events ranging from music festivals to sporting spectacles. The city was once a speck of wilderness on Burrard Inlet, stretching through the traditional territory of the Squamish, Musqueam and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations. Here's a snapshot of how Vancouver has evolved from its early rough-and-tumble pioneering days into a culturally diverse hotspot.

EARLY DAYS

1827

The Hudson's Bay Company establishes its original trading post, now Fort Langley National Historic Site of Canada. It was the area's first non-aboriginal settlement.

1867

O Canada! The British colonies of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are united on July 1, forming the Dominion of Canada. (British Columbia joined Confederation in 1871.)

1867

John "Gassy Jack" Deighton opens his Globe Saloon in Gastown at Carrall and Water streets, where his statue now stands.

AN OFFICIAL CITY

1886

The City of Vancouver is formed. Two months later, the Great Fire reduces much of it to rubble.

1888

Stanley Park opens. At 405 hectares, Vancouver's first public park (it now has 240) is a fifth larger than New York's Central Park.

1910

The city erects its first skyscraper, the Dominion Building, at Hastings and Cambie streets.

1930

The 21-storey Marine Building is constructed. The Art Deco edifice is the tallest in the British Empire.

1867

Hastings Mill in Gastown is the future city's first commercial operation and early settlement. The sawmill's former general store (Vancouver's oldest building) is now the Old Hastings Mill Store Museum in Kitsilano.

1902

The original tourism bureau (now called Tourism Vancouver) was created "for the purpose of making the attractions of Vancouver known to those in search of health and pleasure and also for the purpose of making strangers in the city feel welcome."

1936

Vancouver's Golden Jubilee. The new Vancouver City Hall opens on December 1, marking the city's 50th birthday.

1936/37

Grouse Mountain welcomes skiers, kicking off its first winter season.

1956

Vancouver Aquarium, Canada's first public aquarium, opens in Stanley Park. It had seven employees; today it has more than 400.

1959

The Vancouver Maritime Museum opens to tell and preserve the maritime history of the Pacific Northwest and Arctic.

1964

Touchdown! The BC Lions win the Canadian Football League's Grey Cup, the team's first. (The Lions win it five more times, in 1985, 1994, 2000, 2006 and 2011.)

1970

Face off! The Vancouver Canucks play its first game in the National Hockey League at the Pacific Coliseum, which is part of the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE).

1983

BC Place stadium opens as the world's largest air-supported dome. (It now has a retractable roof.)

HITTING 100

1986

Vancouver celebrates its centennial and hosts Expo '86, the six-month-long World Exposition on Transportation and Communication. The SkyTrain, Canada Place, Vancouver Convention Centre, BC Place stadium and Science World British Columbia were built for the fair.

A NEW MILLENNIUM

2010

Vancouver and Whistler host the 2010 Olympic & Paralympic Winter Games. The Games make history, marking the first time indigenous peoples – Lil'wat, Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations – were partner hosts.

Batter up! The Vancouver Canadians baseball team is founded. It played in the Pacific Coast League until 1999 when it moved to Sacramento. A new Vancouver Canadians team was formed in 2000; the C's play in the Northwest League.

1979

Score! The Vancouver Whitecaps win the North American Soccer League championship.

1995

Echoing the design of the Colosseum in Rome, the new Central Branch of the Vancouver Public Library opens downtown. So does General Motors Place, which is now called Rogers Arena. It's home ice for the Vancouver Canucks.

2014

Vancouver is chosen to host the popular TED Talks until 2020.

2016

Vancouver welcomes 10 million visitors!

2017

Happy 150th Canada! Vancouver marks the occasion with festivals and events throughout the year. Take advantage of free general admission at national parks and historic sites such as the Gulf of Georgia Cannery National Historic Site.
